CHICAGO—Unemployment rates increased in a majority of the metro areas – as did the number of people entering the workforce – indicating many individuals did not find employment, according to preliminary data released today by the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) and the Illinois Department of Employment Security (IDES).

“Though more people in Illinois entered the labor force, they were not able to find jobs,” said IDES Director Jeff Mays. “With Illinois trailing the rest of the country in job creation, we need structural reforms to get more people back to work.”

The unemployment rate increased in 13 metro areas and declined in one. Illinois businesses added jobs in nine metros, in which the largest increases were seen in: Rockford (+2.5 percent, +3,700), Lake-Kenosha (+2.1 percent, +8,200), and Carbondale-Marion (+1.8, +1,000). Total nonfarm jobs in the Chicago-Naperville-Arlington Heights Metro Division increased (+1.5 percent or +53,100). Illinois businesses lost jobs in four metro areas including Bloomington (-1.2 percent, -1,100), Danville (-1.0 percent, -300), and the Quad Cities (-0.9 percent, -1,700). The industry sectors recording job growth in the majority of metros were: Retail (13 of 14), Mining and Construction (10 of 14), Education and Health Services (10 of 14), Leisure and Hospitality (nine of 14), Government (nine of 14), Professional and Business Services (eight of 14) and Other Services (eight of 14).

Not seasonally adjusted data compares January 2016 with January 2015. The not seasonally adjusted Illinois rate was 7.1 percent in January 2016 and stood at 12.2 percent at its peak in this economic cycle in January 2010. Nationally, the not seasonally adjusted unemployment rate was 5.3 percent in January and 10.6 percent in January 2010 at its peak. The unemployment rate identifies those who are out of work and looking for work, and is not tied to collecting unemployment insurance benefits.

Metro East Highlights

Help Wanted

Area employers advertised for 6,000 openings in January and approximately 84 percent sought full-time employment, according to Help Wanted OnLine data compiled by the Conference Board. It is a global, independent business membership and research association. Employers actually need more workers than the help wanted ad indicates because some industries, such as construction, typically do not advertise job openings.

The January 2016 unemployment rate for the Illinois Section of the St. Louis Metropolitan Statistical Area was 7.4 percent, an increase of +0.6 percent from January 2015. The data is not seasonally adjusted.

The number of employed individuals increased by 5,348 to 321,124 in January 2016 from 315,776 in January 2015. The labor force increased by 8,259 to 346,956 in January 2016 from 338,697 in January 2015. In January 2016, there were 25,832 unemployed people in the labor force. This is an increase of 2,911, compared to the January 2015 total unemployed, 22,921.

Over the year, nonfarm payrolls increased by (3,900). Employment increased in Retail Trade (+1,100), Leisure and Hospitality (+1,000), Professional and Business Services (+700), Educational and Health Services (+600), Transportation, Warehousing and Utilities (+500), Mining and Construction (+400), Other Services (+200), Wholesale Trade (+100), and Information (+100).

Manufacturing (-400) and Government (-400) sectors showed job losses over the year. Financial Activities showed no change in employment over the year.
